Jasper School Notes.

Monday morning as Richard Kyle was driving in to school his horse became frightened and ran away, demolishing his vehicle. Mr. Kyle was thrown out but was not hurt. The horse came on to town and stopped at the place where it stays each day while his master is at the "Temple of Knowledge."

Miss Dora Evans visited in Miss Crow's room and the Freshman division of the high school, Tuesday.

Among the visitors at the high school Friday were: Carrie Kerr, Zola Eckard, Myrtle Hearne, and Maud and Hattie McQuillen.

The first year English class outlined for their lesson Tuesday the Lecture that was delivered by Mrs. St. John on Monday night. Each one took pencil and paper and took notes, making the outline in full the next day. The Lecture was one of merit and the pupils are doing good work or they would not have been able to have outlined it. Who knows—perhaps some of the Freshmen will be "Platform Lecturers" themselves in the future.

The following are absent from school this week on account of mumps: Irene Daffer, Arthur and Chester Corder, from room four and Orville Kyle and Clara Greshman from the high school.

The basket ball boys are lamenting a great deal over the illness of Orville Kyle. He is one of their star players and will be unable to play in either of their games this week.

Miss Lizzie Etter is on the sick list.

The tardies in the high school numbered thirty last month. The juniors led with thirteen, the freshmen came next with nine and were followed by the seniors with eight.

The physics class are studying light, most of their experiments this week have been on the reflection and refraction of light waves.

St. Valentine's Day will be celebrated in Miss Teter's room. They will have a valentine box which I dare say, will be much enjoyed by the pupils.

Our new white waistings are now on sale. Step in and Rebecca will take pleasure in showing them to you. Respt. J. D. Harbur.

A GOOD DOCTOR will recommend BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP

Every cough weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, breaks down the tissues and leaves the system in a weakened condition, causing it to be more susceptible to the consumptive germ. Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure the cough and strengthen the system.

The Children Like It.

Mrs. C. H. Runyon, Stanberry, Mo., writes: "I have used your Ballard's Horehound Syrup and find it a very useful medicine for coughs and colds, and in fact all lung troubles. It is very pleasant to take, and we have no trouble in inducing the children to take it. I recommend it highly."

Don't wait until that cough develops into a more dangerous malady. Save yourself and children many sick spells and insure a long and healthy life.

CURES COUGHS, COLDS, SORE THROATS, BRONCHITIS, HOARSENESS, WHOOPING COUGH AND ALL LUNG TROUBLES.

Pleasant to Take 25c, 50c and $1.00 Quick to Cure
